

a wife like me

guest submission guidelines

— We only accept original pieces that haven't appeared anywhere else (including your personal blog).

— If you have more than one submission, please submit each piece in separate emails.

— Please submit only google documents with 12 pt, Lora font, double-spaced.

— Posts must be under 700 words. Post should include a "Wife Step". Please review current posts for better understanding.

— Include your name and the title of your post in the google document itself (at the top of the page) as well as in the doc title (example: Kate Courage – Post Title Here.doc).

— If quoting a verse from the Bible, please include the translation from which you are quoting.

— Take the time to have someone else read your post for clarity, grammar, spelling, and punctuation before submitting.

— Images are not necessary to include in your post submission. Please do not submit posts under an alias.

— The general tone of your post should feel more "me, too" than "how to" and should be considerate to offer encouragement to women in all ages, stages, and seasons of life.

— Submit your work as a google doc in an email to amanda@amandadavison.com.
